CONTEST DESCRIPTION

As early as 1906 a newspaper classified section called "Terse Tales of the Town," published an eight-word mystery that read, "For sale, a baby carriage, never been used."

Amy Millette penned our 2018 1st Annual Contest winning entry with "African American Junaluska Graves. 65 named, 99 nameless."

Susan Poorman was 1st Runner Up with "She cried out. He answered. He shouldn't have."

Two entries tied for 2nd runner up: Mary Tucker's "Rain revealed three gold teeth on the mound" and Claudia Thomas's "The séance and ensuing horror were my fault."

RULES & HOW TO ENTER

- Create an eight (8) word mystery.
- Anyone who is 18 years old or older can enter - county residence and/or library membership is not required.
- Each submission must be the creative and original work of a single individual (No plagiarizing! No co-authors on a form!)
- Entries must be submitted on official entry forms to the Watauga County Public Library at 140 Queen Street, Boone, NC 28607. You may mail entries or drop them off at the Circulation Desk during library hours.
- There is no limit to the number of entries a person can submit; however, a separate signed entry form and $8 must be used for each entry. Receipts will be issued immediately at the Circulation Desk for drop-off entries. Mail-in entries will receive receipts via email in November.
- Additional entry forms are available on the library website www.arlibrary.org/watauga or pick up forms at the Watauga County Public Library 140 Queen Street in Boone, NC. If downloading, please print on letter size paper.
- The Watauga County Public Library and/or Friends of the Watauga Library reserve the right to reproduce your work.
- The contest runs from September 1, 2019 to October 31, 2019 at 7pm. Late entries will be disqualified.

JUDGING

A team of 5 judges from the literary community will individually rank submissions received.

The scores will be tallied and the entry with the highest rank will be declared the winner.

In case of a tie, the winner will be determined by a 6th tie-breaker judge from the community.

PRIZE

There will be one (1) winner declared for the contest. A $25 VISA gift card will be the prize for the winning entry. All entries will be exhibited at the award reception.

AWARD RECEPTION

A free reception for all participants will be held!

Evelyn Johnson Meeting Room
Watauga County Public Library
140 Queen Street, Boone, NC 28607

Nov 12, 2019 • 5-7pm

Entries will be exhibited at this event and the prize for the winner's 8-word mystery will be awarded. You do not have to be present to win.
